FEBRUARY 2026

Making disciples... who make disciples

How many languages do you know? Or maybe the question should be, "What is the most effective means of communication that you use?" With Valentine's Day falling on the 14th of this month, it's appropriate to talk about love. And love is best understood when it is communicated in a language that people recognize. There is no need to reinvent the wheel here, so I'm going to refer to popular Christian author and counselor Gary Chapman in this article.

Expressing and receiving love has been a vital part of relationships since God created humankind. We want others to know how we feel toward them, whether it's affection, admiration, or appreciation. And everyone is different as it refers to how we communicate and react. If we use a foreign language to say something to another person, our message will be lost. The most effective way to get the message across is to express it by the most efficient means possible to the recipient. One of these methods will be the most effective. If you don't know, try all of them!!

Words of Affirmation: Use words to build someone up. Compliments, encouragement, written or verbal. Thank you, I appreciate you, I love you!

Quality Time: Give someone undivided attention. Do what they want to do. Take a walk, put a puzzle together, or simply sitting with them is communicating that they are important.

Giving of Gifts: Thoughtful gestures that symbolize appreciation. Not necessarily expensive, but meaningful to the recipient. It's not the thought that counts!

Act of Service: Doing things for someone to ease their burden or take the pressure off. Chores, errands, giving them a break.

Physical Touch: Using physical contact to express affection. Holding hands, a foot or back massage, kissing.

How you express love may or may not be how you receive love. But the effort to give love in the way they understand your intent makes the expression meaningful. And try not to get stuck in a rut. Experiment with different ideas. The book, The Five Love Languages has been around for years. For more in-depth study; pick up a copy and read it with your spouse. And make the process of learning their love language fun!

Steadfast: A Devotional Bible Study on the Book of James by Courtney Doctor

Faithfulness regardless of our circumstances. That's what it means to be steadfast. But in a world where so much can undermine our faith or pull us off track, steadfastness is often a rare and elusive trait. James longs for his readers to be steadfast. His letter meets us in our suffering and sickness, our trials and temptations, our wealth and poverty, our ups and downs. He confronts our sin, our speech, and our pride. He encourages believers to have more resilient and concrete faith: not just to hear the word, but to do it. He calls us to persevere in truth in a world of lies, to see that God's steadfast love is ultimately the source of our steadfast faith. This 8-week study of James provides: 5 days of study each week—observing, interpreting, and applying the text Devotional commentary with space to journal your thoughts, Memory verse each week, Small group discussion questions, Keynote Teaching Videos from the TGC's 2020 Women's Conference. In a fickle and wayward age, we need biblical wisdom if we are to stay the course and be steadfast saints. The book of James provides this wisdom, and Steadfast will help you apply it.
